Methodism.

Mr. Elitor.—As many of your readers are members and friends of the church we have thought they would be interested in the following, quoted from Southern Methodist Review, May, 1887, Rev. W. P. Harrison, D. D., editor, Nashville, Tenn. Will you, therefore, Much to improve thy jurse and mind be kind enough to publish.

The year 1886 will be regarded as a memorable year in the history of Meth Mary A., the daughter of Burton dism in the United States. A revival influence of unparalleled power prevailed in the church. North and South, from Maine to California, from Baltifornia, from has been remodelled and improved by a more to the Rio Grande. The memporch and a new coat of paint giving it a handsome appearance.

Mrs. Elizabeth S. Miles, died at the Atlantic hotel on 10th inst., aged 84 years. Her remains were taken to Pocomoke City, and interred in the Baptist cemetery at that place.

Worthy to be called a memorable year for the ingathering of souls. We rejoice in the prosperity of our brethren in the South. But once before has combined Episcopal Methodism recorded so great a triumph over the forces of evil in this land. The refrospect is suggested.

"catch" now in 30 minutes is from 10 Episcopal Church numbered ministers and members 1.480,647; in 1886 the figures were 2.015,265, an increase in four-teen years of 534.618, or 36.10 per cent. In 1872 the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, numbered 654,159; in 1886 the continuation of the 27th and 25th of July respective. number was 1,066,377, an increase of 412,218 in fourteen years, or 63.01 per cent; excluding the small number of in those sections in which they were in dole with the immediate members of fullest accord with the general senti-his family in their great bereavement. ments and opinions of the people.

A new building opposite the office of Dr. Drummond has led some to suppose that the medical contlemant is contemporated by the contemporation of the conte not claim that her members are better than those of other arthodox churches, they are altogether as good.

It is also noteworthy that there has been for the last ten years, a la ger net increase in the Eastern Shore District, in membership and salaries paid minis tars than in any other district of the Virginia Conference, M. E. Church. before the summer is over.

Parker Parks and Conterring the Conter trustees are requested to be presen promptly at 10 o'clock a.m., to settl largest growth. Its it crease, according to official returns, is 574 per cent, the next highest is the Lynchburg district, which is 46 per cent, showing that the Eastern Shore leads by 114 per cent.

There is a corresponding increase in ministerial support. The E.
